

MIGRATION and INEQUALITY

Marie Jahoda Summer School of Sociology Vienna, July 8 to 12, 2013

Programme¹

Monday, July 8, 2013

Migration, labour market, integration

- 09:00-09:40 Welcome by the Programme Committee
- 09:40-10:40 Lecture: Irena Kogan, University of Mannheim
Ethnic inequalities in the labour market: Theoretical expectations and empirical evidence
- 10:40-11:00 Coffee break
- 11:00-12:00 Kirkeby, Anja; Aalborg University
Eastern European migrant workers and the Danish labour market. A longitudinal register-based study of the impact of the new labour migration and mobility from Eastern Europe
- 12:00-13:15 Lunch break
- 13:15-14:15 Klein, Juliane; Bremen International Graduate School of Social Sciences (BIGSSS)
East-west migration of the highly-skilled: The case of central eastern European physicians in German hospitals
- 14:15-14:30 Coffee break
- 14:30-15:30 Baumgärtner, Katrin; University of Klagenfurt
Self-employment of high-skilled migrants. A qualitative study
- 15:30-15:45 Coffee break
- 15:45-16:45 Fiałkowska, Kamila; University of Warsaw
20 years later: On the persistence of seasonal migration from Poland to Germany
- 19:00- Social dinner at “Heuriger” (Vienna Wine Tavern)
Meeting point: 06:15 p.m. in front of the Department of Sociology

¹ Lectures and presentations take place at the Department of Sociology (Rooseveltplatz 2, 1090 Vienna).

Tuesday, July 9, 2013

Migration and education

- 09:00-10:00 Lecture: Frank van Tubergen, University of Utrecht
Ethnic diversity, national origin and social ties in school: A social network study of adolescents in England, Germany, the Netherlands and Sweden
- 10:00-11:00 Kurti, Dafina; University of Cologne
When school becomes an obstacle! The role of school context in educational achievements of second generation in Europe
- 11:00-11:15 Coffee break
- 11:15-12:15 Sabanova, Inga; Trinity College Dublin
Migration and social class. A case study of migrant families from the Baltics in Ireland
- 12:15-13:30 Lunch break
- 13:30-14:30 Seibel, Verena; Humboldt University
Labor market returns to education among immigrants in Germany: Determinants of over-education
- 14:30-14:45 Coffee break
- 14:45-15:45 Van Niejenhuis, Coby; University of Groningen
Determinants of second language proficiency
- 15:45-16:00 Coffee break
- 16:00-17:00 Herwig, Andreas; GESIS Mannheim
Educational systems, certificates and utilisation – Explaining ethnic differences in Europe's labour markets
- 17:30-19:30 Guided tour (optional); Meeting point: 05:05 p.m. in front of the Department of Sociology

Wednesday, July 10, 2013

Migration, networks, social capital

- 09:00-10:00 Lecture: Louise Ryan, Middlesex University London
It's really difficult to make friends: the processes of creating and accessing bonding and bridging networks post migration
- 10:00-11:00 Sommer, Elena; Bremen International Graduate School of Social Sciences (BIGSSS)
Social capital as a resource for self-employed migrants from the former Soviet Union in Germany: Access to resources through different types of weak ties
- 11:00-11:15 Coffee break

- 11:15-12:15 Fiedlerová, Klára; Charles University, Prague
Understanding the diversity and dynamics of ethnic enclaves in Czechia. The development of ethnic enclaves and their implications for localities
- 12:15-13:30 Lunch break
- 13:30-14:30 Farrugia, Claire; Macquarie University, Sydney
Sharing to belong: How African women in Sydney experience and construct social solidarity
- 14:30-14:45 Coffee break
- 14:45-15:45 Barglowski, Karolina; Bielefeld University
Migrant Families and Care Practices: Multiple Inequalities in Cross-border Social Spaces
- 15:45-16:00 Coffee break
- 16:00-17:00 Reinprecht, Christoph; Wiesböck, Laura; Haindorfer, Raimund; Verwiebe, Roland; University of Vienna
New Viennese migration projects - Part 1: Job finding and labour market integration of cross-border Commuters in the Central European Region
- 19:00- Public keynote speech²: Stephen Castles, University of Sydney, University of Oxford
International migration after the global economic crisis

Thursday, July 11, 2013:
Migration, cities, space

- 09:00-10:00 Lecture: Sam Scott, University of Exeter
Migration, cities and space: 21st century challenges
- 10:00-11:00 Gruber, Kathrin; University of Vienna
Serbian diaspora networks in Vienna. Transnational ties and their interplay with Serbian regions
- 11:00-11:15 Coffee break
- 11:15-12:15 Gillièron, Gwendolyn; University of Applied Sciences and Arts of North-western Switzerland
Perceptions of space – an analytical experiment in an urban neighbourhood
- 12:15-13:30 Lunch break
- 13:30-14:30 Li, Xin; University of Vienna
Ethnic identity of second generation Chinese Austrian: A case study of the perception degree of ethnic identity through parenting
- 14:30-14:45 Coffee break

² Keynote speech takes place at Kleiner Festsaal, University of Vienna, Universitätsring 1, 1010 Vienna

- 14:45-15:45 Giraud, Cécile; Université Catholique de Louvain
Global cities and transmigrants
- 15:45-16:00 Coffee break
- 16:00-17:00 Tiefenbacher, Barabara; University of Vienna
New Viennese migration projects - Part 2: Temporary transnational Romani migration from South-Slovakia to Styria
- 20:00 - Summer School Get-Together, Vienna's Theater- Bar- and Restaurant District (optional). Meeting point: 8 p.m. in front of the Department of Sociology

Friday, July 12, 2013:
Integration, conflict, discrimination

- 09:00-10:00 Lecture: Maria Kontos, Goethe University Frankfurt am Main Social integration of migrants: discourses, policy, and agency
- 10:00-11:00 Ulbricht, Christian; University Bielefeld
Doing national identity. Categorizations and mechanisms of inequality
- 11:00-11:15 Coffee break
- 11:15-12:15 Hercowitz-Amir, Adi; University of Haifa
Social attitudes on asylum in a politicized context: Public opinion and public policy towards asylum seekers and refugees in Israel and Denmark
- 12:15-13:30 Lunch break
- 13:30-14:30 Goldschmidt, Tina; Stockholm University
Ethnic prejudice and selective welfare state solidarity: The case of Germany
- 14:30-14:45 Coffee break
- 14:45-15:45 Schwarzenbach, Anina; Max Planck Institute for Foreign and International Criminal Law
Social order and police-youth relationship in multi-ethnic urban settings
- 15:45-16:00 Coffee break
- 16:00-17:00 Mattes, Astrid; University of Vienna
Religion in Austrian, German and Swiss migrant integration policies
- 17:00-17:15 Closure

Contact

Department of Sociology
University of Vienna
Rooseveltplatz 2, Vienna A-1090 mariejahoda.summerschool@univie.ac.at <http://www.soz.univie.ac.at/marie-jahoda-summer-school-2013/>